Providing Intervention to School Age Clients via Telepractice Course 9841

Presenter: William Bolden, MA III, CCC-SLP

Course Type: Video

Date Completed: Thursday, November 18, 2021

Course Description: This is Part 2 of a two-part series. The use of telepractice requires unique knowledge and skills, yet the foundations of therapy remain the same. This course reviews the rules and regulations as well as required technology for using a telepractice service delivery model. It discusses ideas for engaging school-age students and providing them with contextualized, effective interventions.
